There will be three Negro principals next year: at Drew, Hoffman-Boston, and Langston elementary schools. In addition, there will be three assistant principals, two at Drew and one at Wakefield Senior High School. One Negro guidance counselor will be at Wakefield and one at Thomas Jefferson. One elementary supervisor will work in schools that are either all white or predominately all white.

As indicated by Mr. Ecker-Racz's statement of March 11, 1965, the School Board intends to fully comply with Title VI of the Civil Rights Act according to the regulations of the United States Office of Education. At this writing, definite plans for accomplishing this have not been formulated. However, before this can be done, several new school buildings will be needed. Our elementary schools range in size from a 6 teacher building housing 157 pupils to one with 36 teachers housing 994 pupils. Not only are several of the buildings small, but they are old and inadequate for today's changing school programs. When new larger schools are in operation, compliance will be facilitated.
